

Internship Program

YOUR EDUCATION WILL MAKE MORE SENSE WHEN YOU GET OUT OF THE CLASSROOM AND INTO YOUR LIFE!

An undergraduate program that helps prepare students to compete in a difficult job market while providing an opportunity to integrate academic knowledge with professional experience. Interns work 9-18 hours per week while receiving supervised experience in a field they hope to enter. In addition, students participate in a weekly seminar designed to integrate academic knowledge with professional experience.

The Women's Studies Internship Program offers:

- Placements for majors in any department
- Crucial work experience before graduation
- Contacts with potential future employers
- Exciting work in a supportive environment
- A chance to learn occupational survival skills
- Small seminar which is limited to 15 students

Over 150 potential placements available in a variety of areas every semester
SUMMER, FALL, AND SPRING

WS 3891	Field Placement	3-9 Credits	Hours arranged by intern & supervisor
WS 3984	Seminar	3 Credits	Weekly meeting (3 hours)

For further information or to enroll in the program, contact
Marita McComiskey, Internship Director
Beach Hall Room 426, marita.mccomiskey@uconn.edu, (860) 486-1133

Learn more about the program at <http://www.womens.studies.uconn.edu>